Foreword **

In order to secure the legal protection of the documents elaborated collectively by the participants (i.e. delegates of CEN Members and other experts in CEN's standardization work), you are asked to accept the following terms and conditions for the assignment of the exploitation rights of your contributions to European standardization by signing the list of participants. For convenience of use, this statement of assignment may also be used as the list of participants for meetings.

EXPLOITATION RIGHTS ASSIGNMENT STATEMENT

1. In the framework of the Berne Convention for the protection of literary and artistic works:
 - (a) By signing the attached list, I assign solely, exclusively and irrevocably to the European Committee for Standardization (CEN) for the benefit of its national Members the exploitation rights of my intellectual contributions, as are reproduced in the publications resulting from the technical deliverables of CEN, as defined in paragraph 1.2 of CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations Part 2.
 - (b) I agree that CEN deliverables containing all or part of my contributions may be published without mention of my name.
 - (c) For the total duration provided for by law, I accept that exploitation will take place without mention of my name.
 - (d) I accept that this assignment does not preclude me from continuing to exploit my own copyrightable contribution for my own purposes, provided that such exploitation does not adversely affect the exploitation of the publications specified in (a) above.
2. Should I offer intellectual contributions for which I do not personally hold the copyright, I undertake to do the necessary to declare this to the appropriate CEN officer with regard to this Statement, or to any other relevant CEN body and to name the holder of the copyright if known to me, in view of securing the assignment of its exploitation rights to CEN.
3. The assigned exploitation rights are granted free of charge worldwide and cover all languages and all forms of exploitation known at present, in particular and non-restrictively: publication, reproduction and adaptation by all means and all graphical support systems, by print, press, photocopy, microfilms, and via all magnetic, electronic and numerical support systems, memory cards, CD-ROMs, DVDs, Blu-Rays, films, photographs, slides, teledistribution, cable, satellite, web applications and on-line document servers and networks, distribution, sub-distribution, translation, derive revenue from duplication, communication to the public in total or in part, in summary or with comments, transfers of exploitation licences to third parties.

 The exploitation rights of contributions made by individuals from the UK government are covered by a separate agreement 'CEN/HMSO Licence Agreement' dated 26 July 2000.

Assignment of Exploitation Rights for virtual meetings

In order to secure the assignment of the exploitation rights of contributions made by participants not physically present during meetings of CEN technical bodies, the (Acting) Secretary shall send systematically the following message to those participants that will attend the meeting by virtual means (e.g. web-conference, phone, etc.).

The (Acting) Secretary of the technical body shall keep record of the replies and archive them for legal evidence, preferably on the Livelink platform, e.g. along with the attendance list, to ensure their long-term availability.

Dear Participant,

In view of your virtual participation to the meeting of CEN/TC 449 scheduled on 2016-09-19, we invite you to read the statement below and to confirm, by returning this e-mail, that you accept the terms thereof.

1. In accordance with the framework of the Berne Convention for the protection of literary and artistic works:
 - (a) By RETURNING this email, or otherwise by actively participating in the relevant meeting, via internet facilitated web-conference, phone conference or other electronic means, relating to the development of CEN deliverables, I assign solely, exclusively and irrevocably to the European Committee for Standardization (CEN) for the benefit of its national Members the exploitation rights of my intellectual contributions, as are reproduced in the publications resulting from the technical deliverables of CEN, as defined in paragraph 1.2 of CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations Part 2.
 - (b) I agree that CEN deliverables containing all or part of my contributions may be published without mention of my name.
 - (c) For the total duration provided for by law, I accept that exploitation will take place without mention of my name.
 - (d) I accept that this assignment does not preclude me from continuing to exploit my own copyrightable contribution for my own purposes, provided that such exploitation does not adversely affect the exploitation of the publications specified in (a) above.
2. If I do not hold the copyright in any intellectual contribution that I submit for inclusion in a CEN deliverable, I undertake to inform the meeting of this fact and to supply the name of the actual copyright holder, if known to me.
3. The assigned exploitation rights are granted free of charge worldwide and cover all languages and all forms of exploitation known at present, in particular and non-restrictively: publication, reproduction and adaptation by all means and all graphical support systems, by print, press, photocopy, microfilms, and via all magnetic, electronic and numerical support systems, memory cards, CD-ROMs, DVDs, Blu-Rays, films, photographs, slides, teledistribution, cable, satellite, web applications and on-line document servers and networks, distribution, sub-distribution, translation, derive revenue from duplication, communication to the public in total or in part, in summary or with comments, transfers of exploitation licences to third parties.

I declare to have read and accepted the above assignment conditions.
